We stand now after the completion of our actions and Divine service during the time of exile, after completion of all forty-two journeys in the "wilderness of nations," and find ourselves already "on the banks of the Jordan by Jericho," on the threshold of Redemption; the reason for exile has already been corrected; Ahavas Yisroel as an appetizer until the beginning of the true and complete Redemption

The Announcement Of The Redemption

32

The connection between Ahavas Yisroel and the future Redemption can be emphasized yet again, not only because the negation of exile comes through the negation of the cause of exile (which comes through the opposite of Ahavas Yisroel<sup>1</sup>). For in our situation, after the completion of our actions and Divine service throughout the time of exile, and after the completion of all forty two journey in the "wilderness of the nations," [when] we find ourselves already "by the Jordan near Jericho"<sup>3</sup> (the stage of Moshiach who "smells and judges"<sup>4</sup>), on the threshold of Redemption, certainly the reason for exile has already been corrected. Therefore, the emphasis on Ahavas Yisroel anticipates the beginning of the true and complete Redemption, which is connected with the point of unity above any division. This emphasis on the unity of the Jewish people is a result of the aspect of yechida (the fifth level [of the soul])<sup>5</sup> that is in all Jews equally. For this is a spark of the soul of Moshiach,<sup>6</sup> the general yechida.<sup>7</sup>

5. [Literally, "like a taste." Translator's note.]

[There are five levels to the soul. The fifth and highest level, "yechida," which means unity or singularity, is the "actual part of G-d Above" within every Jew. Translator's note.]

7. It is known that the verse "A star shall go forth from Yaakov" refers to king Moshiach. It also refers to each and every Jew who is compared to a star, since in each and every Jew is a spark of the soul of Moshiach. (See Likkutei Sichos vol. 2, p. 599. See there for further references.)
