Selfless to a Fault

Rabbi Yosef Yitzchok of Lubavitch once said:

There was a time when they used to say the truth. And it worked.

Once a chassidic businessman came to my grandfather, Rabbi Shmuel of Lubavitch. This was a man who always kept the Gates of Light and *The Gate of Faith*¹ in his breast pocket and was fluent in both.

During his private audience with Rabbi Shmuel, the latter inquired as to his daily schedule. “What do you do before the morning prayers?” asked the Rebbe.

The chassid replied that he studies the G-dly concepts which are expounded upon in the teachings of chassidism, and then meditates upon them both during and following his prayers. The Rebbe continued to go through the chassid’s entire day: every available minute was likewise occupied in the pursuit of the Divine.

“And what of the reading of the sh’mah before sleep?” the Rebbe finished. Then too the chassid thought chassidus.

“So you are forever thinking of G-d,” said the Rebbe, “but when do you think of yourself?”

The chassid fell in a dead faint.

The Rebbe summoned the servant, Reb Pinyeh Leib, to carry the chassid out of the room and revive him. “One needn’t faint,” the Rebbe remarked, “one must do...”

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE REDEMPTION

directives include learning about the concepts of Redemption, in a way that will open the heart, eyes and ears. That is, one must understand, see and hear in the physicality of the world the true and complete Redemption in actual reality. One should learn the Torah of Moshiach (the inner aspects of Torah) in a way of seeing. All of the above is already prepared; one need only open the eyes to see it!

Also the custom of the Jewish people which is continually spreading in our time, to learn the subject of Redemption and Moshiach, in order to prepare himself and others even more for the revelation of the true and complete Redemption, as mentioned above.

b) and the 365 negative commandments corresponding to the 365 sinews (Zohar, volume I, 170b.)

It's therefore understood that now the situation is already one in which the physical body, and even the physicality of the world, is completely purified and refined. It is a "vessel" receptive to all the spiritual lights and concepts, primarily the light³ of our righteous Moshiach, the light of the true and complete Redemption.

And the only thing missing is that a Jew should open his eyes as he should, when he will see that all is ready for the Redemption! There is already the Shulchan Aruch (the Set Table); there is already the Livyosan, the Shor HaBor and the Yayin Meshumar.⁴ The Jewish people already sit by the table, "the table of their Father"⁵ (the Holy One Blessed be He), together with our righteous Moshiach. (As is stated in holy books⁶ that in every generation there is "one descended from Yehuda who is qualified to be Moshiach"). In our generation this is the leader of our generation, my sainted father-in-law. And now forty years after the passing of my sainted father-in-law we also have already "a heart to know and eyes to see and ears to hear."⁷

We must now only open the "heart to know" and open "the eyes to see" and open the "ears to hear." Likewise we must utilize all 248 physical limbs and 365 physical sinews in the learning of the inner aspects of the Torah, as revealed in the teachings of Chassidus and observing the directives of our Rabbeim and leaders.⁸ These

Curious Headgear

A chassid of Rabbi Sholom DovBer of Lubavitch opened a plant for the manufacture of galoshes. Soon his every waking hour and thought was occupied in his new and flourishing business.

Said the Rebbe to him: "To insert one's feet into galoshes is a fairly common practice; but a head in galoshes ...?"

The Announcement Of The Redemption

Maimonides writes:

"In that era! there will be neither famine nor war..."

A foretaste of this peaceful state can be realized even in the last moments of exile. For even as "the nations are provoking one another," and "The king of Persia provokes the Arabian king... and all the nations are in turmoil and terror," the Jewish people are experiencing a state of tranquillity and peace, since "G-d says to them 'My children, do not fear. Whatever I have done, I have done only for your sake... the time for your Redemption has arrived.'" Furthermore, "The 'King Moshiach' - the Redeemer of Israel - "stands on the roof of the Beis HaMikdash... and says, 'Humble ones, the time for your Redemption has arrived.'"²

The subject that is most urgent in our generation and our time is - the true and complete Redemption through our righteous Moshiach. As has been mentioned many times of late, now all the requirements have already been concluded, we need only receive our righteous Moshiach in actual reality.

All the more so in our generation and our time, when according to the signs of our Sages of blessed memory (in the tractate Sanhedrin, in Midrashim and in many places) we are actually on the verge of the Redemption.

As mentioned many times recently, that after our many great achievements and Divine service throughout the generations, and specifically after the Divine service of our Rebbeim and leaders through the Divine service of my sainted father-in-law, the leader of our generation, all necessary spiritual purifications have been accomplished.

This also includes the spiritual purification of "Aisev [Esau] is Edom."¹ Aisev is already completely spiritually purified, as we see how the nations at this time (in the exile of Edom²), which stem from "Aisev is Edom," conduct themselves as benevolent governments. Such conduct has spread to other nations, as we have seen, especially of late.

Edom is the Biblical ancestor of the Roman people, whose empire still persists both in a spiritual sense and in a physical sense in the domination of European civilization and its derivatives.
