Chapter V

פרק ה', משנה ב': עשרה דורות מ אדם ועד נח. להודיע כמה ארך אפיקים לפניו, שכל הדורות היו מכעיסין ובאיין, עד שהביא עליהם את מי המבול. עשרה דורות מנה ועד אברהם. להודיע כמה ארך אפיקים לפניו, שכל הדורות היו מכעיסין ובאיין, עד שבא אברהם וקיבל שכר כולם.

Chapter 5, Mishnah 2: There were ten generations from Adam until Noach. This is in order to teach us the extent of Hashem's tolerance. All of those generations angered Him, until (ultimately), He brought upon them the waters of the Flood. There were ten generations from Noach to Avrohom. This is in order to teach us the extent of G-d's tolerance; for all these generations angered Him, until Abraham came and reaped the reward for them all.

The Simple Explanation

Our Mishnah teaches us a number of important lessons<sup>1</sup>. The first generations after creation were very close to Hashem's creation of Adam. The people certainly had great insight into the power of Hashem. Nevertheless, they chose not follow Him. The fact that G-d tolerated this behavior demonstrates His incredible mercy. Therefore, we should not wonder how the Almighty has allowed the nations to subjugate His chosen people for such a long time.

Difficulties in Understanding the Mishnah

The Mishnah speaks of two sets of ten generations; the generations from creation until Noach, and those from Noach until Avrohom. We need to understand the different expressions used in describing these two sets of generations. Regarding the generations from Noach until Avrohom, the Mishnah tells us that Avrohom received the reward of all of the previous generations. However, regarding Noach, we find no such thing. Why is it that Noach did not receive the reward of all of the previous generations?

The Explanation

The Zohar tells us that<sup>2</sup> "Noach did not beseech G-d for mercy on behalf of the world." In other words, he did not attempt to express the merits of his generation. He did not pray on their behalf, despite knowing their fate. Contrast this with the behavior of Avrohom Avinu; he prayed fervently on behalf of the people of Sodom. He tried with all of his might to save them.

In this respect Avrohom's behavior was comparable to that of Moshe Rabbeinu. After the sin of the golden calf, he prayed valiantly on behalf of the Jews. He even carried this a step further, telling the Almighty that if you do not forgive them<sup>3</sup> "erase me now from Your book, which You have written."

We see that Avrohom helped bring about the merit of his generation. Because of the part he played in their merit, he indeed deserved to receive their reward. May we learn from our father Avrohom and our teacher Moshe how to relate to those around us. We must always give them the benefit of the doubt. We must seek their welfare, both spiritually and physically. In this way will we all merit to be inscribed for a good, sweet year.

Chapter VI

Likkutei Sichos Volume 36, Pages 184 - 186

Chapter VI

פרק ו', משנה ו': גדולה תורה יותר מן הכהונה ומן המלכות, שהמלכות נקנית בשלשים מעלות, והכהונה בעשרים וארבע, והתורה נקנית בארכבים ושמונה דברים, ואלו הן ... והאומר דבר בשם אומרו. הא למדת כל האומר דבר בשם אומרו מביא גאולה לעולם, שנאמר ותאמר אסתר למלך בשם מרדכי.

Chapter 6, Mishnah 6: Torah is greater than the priesthood or kingship, for kingship is acquired with 30 virtues, the priesthood with 24, and Torah is acquired with 48 qualities ...one who says something in the name of its speaker. This is as we have learned, that one who says something in the name of its speaker brings redemption to the world, as is stated<sup>4</sup>, "And Esther told the king in the name of Mordechai<sup>5</sup>."

The Simple Explanation

The sixth and concluding chapter of Pirkei Avos is called Kinyan Torah, the Acquisition of Torah. All of its teachings focus on how we can make Torah a part of ourselves. The teaching upon which we are focusing expressly spells out all of the 48 qualities which one needs in order to acquire Torah.

3. Parshas Tiso, Shemos 32:32.

4. Esther 2:22.

5. This verse tells of an event which brought about the miracles which culminated in the redemption of Purim.

PIRKEI AVOS OF THE WEEK

The very last of these virtues is that of saying something in the name of the original speaker, i.e. giving credit to the source of the teaching. It goes a step further, and tells us that as a result of so doing, we bring redemption to the world.

Difficulties in Understanding the Mishnah

We need to understand what the connection is between repeating a teaching in the name of the one who said it and the acquisition of Torah. The other 47 attributes are clearly necessary in order to internalize Torah; “study, listening, verbalizing, etc.” However, the 48th item would seem to require explanation. How does it facilitate the acquisition of Torah? Additionally, of what relevance is the fact that through this virtue one brings redemption to the world.

The Explanation

As mentioned above, this is the concluding chapter of Pirkei Avos. This work began with the teaching that<sup>6</sup> “Moshe received the Torah from Sinai, and gave it over to Yehoshua. Yehoshua gave it over to the Elders, the Elders to the Prophets, and the Prophets gave it over to the Men of the Great Assembly …” In other words, Torah study is based on a tradition. I received the knowledge of Torah which I possess from my teacher. He received Torah from his teacher, etc., going all the way back to Moshe Rabbeinu, who received Torah directly from G-d. Remembering this is a fundamental principle of Torah study. It must constantly be engraved in everything we learn. That is why this is one of the 48 virtues needed in order to acquire Torah.

That is also why by doing so one brings redemption to the world. Mentioning he who originally made the statement redeems the Torah. It reveals the truth, that all of Torah is a tradition which began with the Almighty transmitting the Torah to Moshe. The Torah is the basis and foundation of the entire world. As a result of redeeming Torah, we bring redemption to the world. May we experience the complete and true redemption through our righteous Moshiach now!
